

The Bible is the best way to learn about prayer from God's perspective. The list below includes many of the New Testament references to prayer. The number of passages may appear daunting, but you'll find great examples of teaching on prayer.

Now, read through the passages slowly enough to absorb what's taught, but fast enough to see the relationships between the each of them. My hope is that through reading these passages you will gain a proper understanding of what prayer is, how to do it, and how to listen to God when He speaks to you. Use the space beside each one to take notes as you study.
